envision SYNERGY is dedicated to the uncompromising advancement of a healthy planet with happy, thriving people. Because these complex challenges span jurisdictional boundaries, cross sectoral lines and require diverse expertise, working together is the way forward. envision catalyzes collaboration across silos, organizations, jurisdictions, sectors, and academic backgrounds, resulting in innovative, durable solutions that foster systems thinking and bridge organizational boundaries. Along the way, we build strong organizations that can both effectively carry out their work and are well-poised for effective collaboration.

As experienced collaboration and facilitation whizzes, we work at the intersection of outstanding group process, visual thinking, and building a group's capacity to collaborate and evaluate their work so they are even more effective over time.
